Zombozo by Kreios

Once upon a time, an evil clown named Zombozo was being chased by a boy with a watch named Ben, a silly kid with a Switch named Neigh, a girl with glasses named Gwen and an alien human named Kevin. "It's hero time!" Ben and Neigh said. In a blink of an eye, a giant bowling ball and a yellow mouse came out of nowhere and defeated Zombozo. Then, they turned back into Ben and Neigh. Just then, a staff fell on Ben turning him into Astrodactile. "Sorry" mysterious said.

The mysterious person stepped into view with four other people. One person was green and had a purple jacket, another was half human half robot. One had pink hair, green eyes and was floating! The last was the most mysterious; completely covered in her cloak except her eyes. Then, the mysterious person shouted "Okay, lets fight!" Him and his friends started attacking Ben, Neigh, Gwen, and Kevin. Neigh said, "Oh right, I want Meta Knight." Neigh instead turns into Bowser Jr. "Oh come on!" he cried.

The fight between the groups get worse and the half robot cried "Please we're innocent!" Neigh then says "Well you're gonna..." But he gets interrupted when he transformed back, then groans in dismay. The green person exclaims, "Ohhh!" and turns away from Neigh, laughing. But then, Neigh turns into Meta Knight while the green boy was not looking. The green boy turns around and Meta Knight say "As I was saying you're gonna..." then gets interrupted by Zombozo. Zombozo wanted to come back and fight because the fear makes him strong. Zombozo brought a group of scary mascots with him. "Dude!" Neigh said. "It's just a sentence, can I finish it?" Ben replies, "It's okay as long as we're - "But suddenly they turn back. "Never mind."

The mysterious person's group realises who the real enemy is and turns to Ben saying, "I am Robin, he's Beast boy, that's Cyborg, Starfire and Raven. We thought you were the bad guy, sorry." Neigh replies. "Okay, I'm- "But he gets eaten by a mascot and turns into Diddy Kong. Neigh then lets out a big sigh. Ben transforms into Kicking hawk then turns to his new ally. "Okay Robin, lets boogie!"

Then the two takes down Zombozo and his scary mascot group. "Anyway, thank you Robin," Ben said. "See ya later alligator," Neigh added, waving to the teen titans. Then someone in the distance yells "Tennyson!" he shouted angrily. "Uh oh," Ben said, frightened. Then they ran away because they realised, they made a big mess.

Diego created a fantastic Native American Totem pole and found that his spirit animal is a fish. His brother's spirit animal is a dog.

Our Totems

We have been looking at totem poles and what they mean to the Native Americans.

We all designed a totem pole that represents our likes, our feelings, our family, and everything that makes us unique.

To celebrate 'Going for Gold' our artists designed their own ribbon for Cancer Awareness

Bryce created an amazing ribbon that encompasses all the colours for cancer awareness.

Absolutely amazing!!!

Charlie kept with the 'Going for Gold' theme and designed this wonderful ribbon.
